

Public Parking – IJF / PVGP

For those who have not registered a Jaguar for either Concours or Display on Saturday, July 18, 2026, you need to know where to park your non-Jaguar. While some try to park in the neighborhood opposite the entrance to Schenley Drive off of Forbes Avenue, this is a challenging proposition. The PVGP provides parking at Flagstaff Hill for $30 per day and will shuttle you to the show field and back to the parking area.

CLICK HERE to purchase a ticket for parking and see maps of how to get to Flagstaff Hill.

You will take the same route from the DoubleTree Pittsburgh-Cranberry Hotel as you would take to the IJF Friday evening dinner or the Saturday Show field, but before you get to either Northumberland Street or Schenley Drive, you will turn right off of Forbes Avenue onto Margaret Morrison Street where the CMU Athletic Field appears on your right. You will then stay on Morrison Street as it bears right and then turn left onto Tech Street in the middle of the CMU Campus. You then turn right at the end of Tech Street onto Frew Street and drive a short distance to the entrance to Flagstaff Hill on the left.

Anyone not registered for the Concours, Marque of the Year Display, Rally, or Slalom would best register as “IJF Participant - No Car” on the PVGP website to provide you with a wrist band for admission. Click on the blue button for “Details and Registration”.